SUMMARY OF TELEPHONIC INTERVIEW

Sir:

This paper is being filed responsive to the telephonic interview between the Examiner and the undersigned agent on April 30, 2007. No fees or charges should be required for entry of this paper. However, if any fees or charges are due or required for entry of this paper, the Commissioner is authorized to deduct them from IBM's Deposit Account 09-0461.

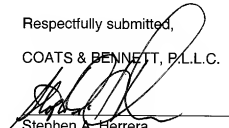

REMARKS

Applicant received a first Notice of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief mailed April 16, 2007, and responded with a corrected Summary on April 26, 2007. After Applicant filed the corrected Summary, Applicant received a second Notice of Non-Compliant Appeal Brief mailed April 20, 2007. The undersigned agent telephoned the Examiner on April 30, 2007 and asked the Examiner to clarify why the Office sent two Notices. After consulting the record, the Examiner stated that the April 20 Notice was duplicative of the April 16 Notice, and therefore, erroneously sent to the Applicant. The Examiner then stated that the corrected Summary of April 26, 2007 sufficiently addressed the Notices. Based on these assurances, Applicant understands that no further action is required to respond to either Notice.

The undersigned agent wishes to thank the Examiner for his time and effort in conducting the interview. The undersigned agent also respectfully urges the Office to telephone him should any issues relating to the duplicative Notices arise so that they can be resolved expeditiously.

Respectfully submitted,

COATS & BENNETT, P.L.L.C.
